PEN PICTURES

KEIRON BAKER. Goalkeeper from Ryde, Isle of Wight, now in his eighth season at Bournemouth, for whom he made 33 appearances last season.

CLIVE PAYNE. Made over 150 League and Cup appearances for Norwich prior to joining Bournemouth in December 1973.

LES PARODI. Was on Charlton's books as an amateur and has played only 15 League games for Bournemouth to date.

HOWARD GODDARD. In his first season as a professional after earning a reputation as a striker with the youth side.

JOHN DELANEY. A big, strong defender from Wycombe Wanderers and now in his second season at Bournemouth.

NEIL HAGUE. A six-footer who played in defence for Rotherham and Plymouth until signed this year. A former England youth international.

DEREK RICKARD. Signed this summer from Plymouth, for whom he made 97 appearances and scored 41 goals.

KEITH MILLER. A former West Ham junior who cost £10,000 when signed in 1970 and has since made over 180 appearances.

JOHN WINGATE. Another six-footer who played 44 games for Exeter last season. Previous to that was with Plymouth.

MARK NIGHTINGALE. A youth team product who has just turned professional.

STEVE BUTTLE. Played 32 games last season after joining club from Ipswich Town.

AFC BOURNEMOUTH

As the recently-adopted name implies, this is a modern club with aspirations towards providing for many other sports besides soccer.

A £1 million development has just got under way, including a new stand, which will provide indoor facilities such as squash courts, a weight training area, solarium, restaurant, bars, lounges, etc. and accommodation for 7,300, of whom 3,800 will be seated.

The club started out as Boscombe St. John's in 1890 and became Bournemouth and Boscombe in 1922, when they were elected to the Football League.

Relegated to the Fourth Division at the end of 1969–70, they gained promotion at the first attempt but, despite the guidance of managers of the calibre of Eddie Lowe, Jack Bruton, Freddie Cox, Bill McGarry, Don Welsh and John Bond, they have never made it to the Second Division.

They nearly did in 1971–72, when a late spurt by Southern rivals Brighton pipped them at the post. The following season they started well but fell behind after leading scorer Ted McDougall had been sold to Manchester United. That, in all probability, was the price of promotion – £220,000.

Last season, their record read:

W.16, D.15, L.15, F.54, A.58, Pts 47

which was only sufficient to keep them just above the half-way position.

This season they have made another good start with nine points from the first six games and far and away the best defensive record of any team in the four divisions – only one goal against. In Four League Cup games, however, they have looked a little more vulnerable with a total of five against.

McDougall, who created a record when he scored 49 goals for the club in the Fourth Division in 1970–71, is probably the best known player to wear their colours, though the club spent quite a lot of money the following season in pursuit of promotion to the Second Division. Their signings included John O'Rourke, a forward, who cost £55,000 when signed from Q.P.R. and in February this year they paid £300,000 for Alan Welsh, another forward, from Plymouth.

Their record attendance was 28,799 for an F.A. cuptie against Manchester United in 1957. The Cup also gave them their record victory, 11–0 over Margate in 1971, while their record defeat was 8–1 inflicted by Bradford City in 1970.

As Bournemouth were in Division Four when North End were last in this division, the two clubs will be meeting each other for the first time.

MANAGER

Trevor Hartley has had a quick rise to the Bournemouth "hot seat" and at 27 is the youngest manager in the four Divisions of the League.

As a teenager he had the choice of a career as a professional tennis player or a footballer and opted to sign for West Ham at 17.

He moved to Bournemouth in 1969 and played for two seasons before he was persuaded to take up full time coaching and for the next three years he devoted his attention to the youth team. During that time the juniors reached the last eight of the F.A. Youth Cup and the semi-final of the Southern Junior Cup.

An accident to the first team coach then led to Trevor being promoted and when John Bond left to manage Norwich last season, he found himself "the boss" at Bournemouth's Dean Court ground.

KEEP OFF

Please do not damage the advertisements facing the pitch or obscure them, and KEEP OFF THE GRASS. The playing area must be kept clear of spectators. Needless damage is done when supporters go on to it. THIS MUST CEASE, otherwise well-behaved youngsters as well as offenders may be penalised. You can cheer from the terraces.

LEAGUE FOOTBALL

We wish to inform Supporters that following a 500% increase in the cost of this publication with effect from the 1st of October, we have reluctantly had to cancel our order for future supplies for inclusion in the programmes. This step is regretted but is in line with that taken by the majority of League Clubs.

CHARLT

There is no disguising the fact that the result at Crystal Palace was a great disappointment. We had hoped to get at least one point and the lads tried really hard but, though John Brown saved a penalty in magnificent style, things generally did not run our way.

We knew this was one of our toughest games, in fact we have had some testing fixtures so far this season, but, besides maintaining our unbeaten home record, we aim to improve our away performances to enable us to remain amongst the principal contenders for promotion.

Today's visitors, A.F.C. Bournemouth, are also strong challengers, but by the time they arrive at Deepdale they will have played two mid-week League cuptie replays against Hartlepools. They are normally a much-travelled team, along with sides like Gillingham, Brighton, Southend and Plymouth, and this marathon cuptie with such long-distance opponents as Hartlepools is probably something they could have done without.

ON CHAT

Most teams do a lot of travelling at this time of the season and this can be very wearisome.

Yet, despite all the difficulties and set-backs, I can't help getting a feeling of excitement over the way things have gone for us this season and I feel it in my bones that we are going to continue doing well.

Some credit for our success must go to John Brown, who, match after match, pulls some great saves out of the bag. It must not have been very easy for him to have to follow a great goalkeeper like Alan Kelly, but he is doing a grand job.

As the "last ditch", a lot depends on the 'keeper, and when you have confidence in him as we have it makes you feel a lot safer.

We just hope that our luck with regard to injuries holds out and in this respect a tribute must go to our trainer, Harry Hubbick, and those who help him to keep the players fit. With such a small staff we cannot afford to have members of the first team squad out of action and for that reason everybody is glad to have Ray Treacy playing again.

He netted twice for the Reserves last Saturday and there is no doubt that we shall be glad of him to strengthen the first team squad.

CAR PARKING IN AND AROUND DEEPDALE

We are asked by the Lancashire Constabulary to draw the attention of our supporters to complaints received by them regarding the parking of vehicles with near-side wheels on footpaths in side streets in the Deepdale area. Damage is being caused to footpaths and we are asked to point out that parking of this type is an offence against the provisions of the Highways Act 1959.

The Police ask for the co-operation of supporters in this matter.

OUR DIVISION

With so many clubs clustered at the top of the League table and the position changing from day to day it would be a bold man who would care to nominate favourites for promotion at this stage.

Colchester United, who came into the Third Division again this season for the fourth time since they joined the League in 1950–51, and are, incidentally, our next visitors in the League, are making a bold effort with 11 points from eight games against our 12 from one more match. They have a useful-looking goal record of ten for and five against and the goals seem to be getting shared around a bit more than last season, when Bobby Svarc collected 25 out of a total of 73.

They seem to be doing a good job of raising their own players as a surprisingly small number of those on their books have had League experience with other clubs.

It is good to see that North End are still crowd-pullers, with 13,120 watching them at Peterborough on Saturday and 21,055 at Crystal Palace in mid-week.

These attendances are far more than the figures for several Division Two games, both mid-week and Saturday.

Aldershot, having had a point deducted for playing an unregistered player, are struggling at the bottom of the table along with Huddersfield, Wrexham and Grimsby and the honours in the goalscoring chart go to Peter Eastoe, of Swindon, with seven, all in the League. Southend's Chris Guthrie, Bill Rafferty, of Plymouth, and Alan Whittle (Crystal Palace), all with six, also lead Tony Morley and Mel Holden, who have recorded five each, including cuptie goals.

North End's next match in the League Cup is at Chester on October 9th, a comfortable run down the M.6 for those who wish to be there to cheer them on.

The Fourth Division club will be no push-overs, of course, having already beaten Blackpool 3–1 at the Sealand Road stadium. In the previous round, also at home, they beat Walsall 2–1.

In 1970–71, when North End were making their big promotion drive, the two clubs met in the first round of the F.A. Cup at Deepdale and drew 1–1. Chester won the replay 1–0.

Of the players who represented North End in those games, only John McMahon and Alex Spark are still at Deepdale.

Those who have followed the travels of former North End centre forward Brian Greenhalgh may wonder why he is not in the Bournemouth side today. The reason is that he is at present on loan to Torquay.

Brian moved on to Aston Villa with Brian Godfrey in 1967, then to Huddersfield and Cambridge United, for whom he scored 18 goals in 45 games in 1972–73. Last season he found the net 10 times in 17 games before being transferred to Bournemouth and scoring six times in 15 appearances.

Those who wish to compare North End's performances so far this season with those at the beginning of the promotion season in the Third Division in 1970–71 may like to see the figures.

WALTER PILKINGTON—A TRIBUTE

Readers of the programme will have noticed that there has been a change of editor, due to the retirement of Mr. Walter Pilkington, and the Directors would not like the occasion to pass without expressing their appreciation of the valuable assistance and support the Club has received from Walter over a long number of years.

As the assistant to the late Arthur Brierley, sports editor of the Lancashire Daily Post, Walter began to report North End matches in 1927 and subsequently travelled with the club to nearly every ground in the country. He had, however, first watched North End as a boy in 1910, in the days of the renowned Dicky Bond.

Walter had a close and harmonious association with the club, writing under the pen name of "Viator", and through the years became a close friend of directors, managers, players and staff.

He also covered 76 international matches and contributed articles to the club programme before he became its editor and writer ten years ago.

Now for personal reasons and, as he puts it, anno domini, he has decided to call it a day. Not, however, without a lot of pleasant memories of a game which was his major pre-occupation in life, though he has always been keenly interested in cricket, on which he wrote exclusively in summer, and in classical music.

I asked him which North End players had given him the most pleasure to watch and this was the way he put it:

Goalkeeper: Alan Kelly, whose split-second reflexes earned him top rating.

Full-back: Willie Cunningham, whom he looked upon as a "gentle giant" – ferocious in the tackle but a kindly person in all respects.

Half-backs: Joe McCall, a master player who knew how to be in the right place at the right time, and Bill Shankly, who applied himself to the game with such true devotion.

Forwards: Tom Finney, the most versatile forward ever and the finest sportsman the game could wish to have, and Alex James, the wizard, another master player, whom the North End supporters were privileged to see in his four most entertaining years.

In thanking Walter for his contribution to the club in both the prosperous and the lean years and to the game in general, the Directors wish him a long and happy retirement, and may he see many more games from his seat at Deepdale.

NORMAN SWIFT

 He was never afraid to criticise, but in a constructive way, which although not all would agree with, were accepted because they were in the interests of the Club.
